

Making a referral is simple

FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

1. Ask if your patient consents to getting a call from a trained Counterpart Peer Support Volunteer.
2. Fill out our confidential e-referral form at counterpart.org.au/refer
3. Give your patients a Counterpart brochure as we welcome self-referral.

COUNTERPART
Women supporting women with cancer

Connect your patients to community-based support

Counterpart connects, supports and informs women living with breast or a gynaecological cancer to live well.

Your Counterpart in Cancer Care

Since 2003, we have supported Victorian women affected by breast or a gynaecological cancer over 35,000 times.

- Our model is valued and trusted by the health professionals we work with.
- We do not provide medical, legal or financial advice or counselling.
- Women seek support at different times from diagnosis, during or after treatment; you can refer women to us at any time.
- All Counterpart services are supported by dedicated and professional staff.

Counterpart is a government funded, community-based, supportive care service that complements the medical system and other cancer support services.

Our services are confidential and free.

They include:

Peer support (By phone or in person)

Emotional and practical support from women who have experienced cancer and are professionally trained to assist other women.

Information resources (online and hard copy)

Reliable, evidenced-based information tailored to individual needs.

What's On events and workshops (online and face-to-face)

Health and wellbeing sessions with qualified health professionals on a range of topics.

Making Connections

Specific programs for women with advanced/metastatic cancer.
