

Every woman's experience of cancer is different but talking to another woman who has had cancer can help.

Counterpart can support you from diagnosis, during or after treatment. We can help you at any time.

All our services are free and confidential.

'A place of tremendous unspoken caring, it was there, it's a feeling, it's an atmosphere.'

Artwork featured here was created for Women's Health Victoria by artist Madison Connors, a proud and strong Yorta Yorta (Wolithica), Dja Dja Wurrung and Gamilaroi woman. Read this beautiful artwork's creation story and more about Madison on the Women's Health Victoria website. whv.org.au

COUNTERPART
Women supporting women with cancer

Are you looking for support?

Counterpart connects, supports and informs women living with cancer to live well.

Connect with someone who understands

Counterpart's trained and experienced Peer Support Volunteers understand what it is like to be a woman who has cancer, as they have had a cancer diagnosis themselves.

Our volunteers:

- listen to you
- give you time and space to talk through your feelings
- help you find reliable information
- direct you to services that provide practical help, medical advice or support
- share ideas and tips to help you look after your wellbeing
- help you find ways to adjust to life following a cancer diagnosis.

You can speak to a trained Peer Support Volunteer:

- in person at our Resource Centre
- call us on 1300 781 500
- get in touch via our website
